EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Gerald H. Glanzman, Registration Number 25,035 on April 24, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims

In claim 15,

Line 10, replaced "placing" with – storing –

In claim 18,

Line 9, replaced "placing" with – storing --

In claim 23,

Line 1, after "readable" inserted –storage--

Line 9, replaced "place" with – store –

Reasons for allowance

2. Claims 3,11-20, 23-24 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding independent claim 15, prior art of record does not teach a method in a data processing system for executing a request on a data store, the method comprising receiving a request containing data, and specifically locating a split reference section in a single in-memory object, identifying a spilt reference, determining a reference column from the split reference, extracting a value from the data, wherein a value includes determining whether a split length element exists and storing the value in the reference column according to an order.

Regarding independent claim 18, prior art of record does not teach a method in a data processing system for executing a request on a data store, the method comprising receiving a request containing data, and specifically locating a split reference section in a single in-memory object, identifying a spilt reference, determining a reference column from the split reference, extracting a value from the data and storing the value in the reference column according to an order.

Regarding independent claim 23, prior art of record does not teach a computer program product in a computer readable storage medium for executing a request on a data store, the computer program product comprising first instructions for receiving a request from a client containing data and specifically second instructions that locate a split reference section in a single in-memory object, third instructions for determining a reference column of a split reference, and forth instructions that extract a value from the data wherein extracting a value includes determining whether a spilt reference exists and storing the extracted value in the reference column in an order.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
